SPECTACULAR PATAGONIA TOUR 6th – 20th FEBRUARY 2010

Come with us & share this incredible place

The Invitation

Join our fantastic tour to stunning South America. See Buenos Aires & watch glaciers carve in Glaciar National Park.

This trip will provide the opportunity for really special walking in Torres Del Paine, Glacier & Mt. Fitzroy National Parks. This is your chance to watch the Condors soar over the Andes & Guanacos & Rheas graze on the Pampas. The walks are all day walks but longer ones are possible.

Feast on the culture & scenery, develop your Spanish & savour such vivid experiences that the memories will last a lifetime.

The Airfare

We have not included the airfare within the price. The intention is to find the best fare available to match the itinerary of each individual. Some people may opt to visit other places such as Ushuaia in the far south or Lima in Peru. In each case the best fare may be different. It therefore makes sense to quote the price excluding the international airfare. Please note that the itinerary does include a return flight from Buenos Aires to El Calafate, the gateway to Patagonia. This fare is included in the pricing but not the taxes as these will vary until the flights are ticketed.

The Travel Plan

The plan is for participants to meet in Buenos Aires on 6th Feb 2010. There will be time to enjoy this magical city that has been aptly named the “Paris of the South”. This is a city rich in culture & steeped in music. Despite its nick-name it is unique. It is really like no other city. Buenos Aires is the home of Tango. Like the dance it is a city of passion, grace and romance.

This city has a vibrant café culture, fabulous restaurants and a beguiling soul. Whether you want to see Evita’s pink palace or stroll the promenades of the Modero, Buenos Aires has much to offer.

The Itinerary

We will have a few days in Buenos Aires to explore this wonderful city before we fly south to the pampas town of El Calafate.

This picture perfect village will be our base for exploring Glacier National Park.

In Glacier National Park spectacular Condors & Eagles soar over ice-wracked terrain from another era. The Perito Moreno Glacier is the only glacier in the world, outside of Antarctica, that is still growing. The power & visual impact is amazing. There will also be time to have a walk on the glacier & take in the Upsaala Glacier and to cruise amongst icebergs floating in frigid waters.

To tour the lake is one of the unforgettable journeys of the world. The views are exceptional. The scenery is the closest you will get to Antarctica without actually visiting the frozen continent.

From El Calafate we head north to El Chalten. This small village is nestled below some of the most incredible mountains on earth. Granite spires rear up from the plains. There are virtually no foothills. This will be our base for a few days as we walk through grass covered alpine meadows & wonderful forests. There are carpets of wildflowers, babbling streams & towering above, huge awe inspiring towers. The walking is easy & the rewards outstanding. This area is one of the most beautiful walking spots in the world. Here magical lakes are surrounded by enormous granite spires. The lush countryside is populated with Guanacos (a proud & attractive cousin of the Llamas) and the lakes teem

We plan to

From Chalten we travel to Torres del Paine which is another World Heritage Park. This is the 3rd of the icons of Patagonia.

There will be time to explore, walk, photograph and just contemplate the magnificent scenery & the abundant wildlife. Flamencos inhabit some of the lakes & guanacos are plentiful. These bountiful offerings will be complimented by great and excellent wine. Your stay in the park is certain to be wonderful.

From Torres del Paine we drive back to El Calafate & catch our flight back to Buenos Aires. You can then head home, opt for some private individual travel or choose to accompany our next tour module in Peru & Bolivia.

Some might stay on a while; others might head for Inca areas etc. The beauty of the arrangement is that we can choose the best fare for your needs. A huge variety of options are available.

From South America you can even opt to return home via Europe & Asia. Truly this will be a trip to remember.

Price: $3855.00(excl international Airfare & airline taxes)

Based on 2009 prices in Twin Share. Some conditions apply. For details contact us.

Places on this tour are limited so book yours now by returning the Booking Form along with a deposit of $300.
